"1776. REVOLUTION"

Possibly a war with the Colonists could have been averted had not a delegation of Northern Indians, headed by Cornstalk, the noted Shawnee chief. Encouraged by the British, Cornstalk was urging Indians everywhere to unite in a war against the Colonists.

The war with the Colonist began on July 20, 1776. From the beginning the war with the colonists went badly. The Colonists burned out many of the Cherokee towns with the loss of many lives. In 1777 the Cherokee negotiated a peace treaty resulting in the loss of 5,000,264 acres to the Colonists.
